

Paolo Alberto De Angelis

Born in Rome in 1957, he graduated with honours in Mechanical Engineering in 1980. He started his career as an engineer in the aluminium industrial sector, working on investment and project evaluation.

Attending the IMI training school in 1982 he was introduced to bank business. After that experience, he joined Mediocredito di Roma where he demonstrated his ability to create relationships with commercial banks, contributing on the merger of three Roman Banks into Banca di Roma. This experience led him to Mediocredito Centrale, a second-tier commercial bank, where he developed innovative finance projects and created a solid network working on the restructuring plan of Banco di Sicilia - Sicilcassa. Here he became Head of Market focused on reorganizing the branches, redesigning segmentations, and on products & commercial credit activities. He also became a member of BoD of Irfis Spa and Basileasing Spa

With the privatization of Mediocredito Centrale and the launch of the Capitalia Project, he was appointed as Head of the Credit Department and member of the Board of Directors of Fidis Retail Italia and Synesis for the project 'convertendo Fiat '. As Head of Asset Finance of the Capitalia Group at MCC VDG he worked on the reorganization of the para banking services (CEO of Capitalia Leasing & Factoring and Fineco Leasing).

Then, after the acquisition by the BNPP Group, he moved to BNL where he had the opportunity to experience an international approach. Here he was appointed as Head of Corporate Division becoming a top 100 manager of the Group.

He also held the positions of Vice-President of the Board of Directors of Ifitalia - International, Director of BNP Paribas Lease Group SA, and Director of Arval Spa.

Through his experience as Vice-General Director BNL, in 2017 he was appointed to the Board of Directors of BNL, assuming the Presidency of the Risk and Product Committees of the Bank.
